Press Release

GWI is proud to announce Emirates as the official airline partner for the GWI International Conference in Cape Town, South Africa 24-26 August 2016

Geneva, Switzerland, 4 February 2016 – Graduate Women International (GWI) is proud to announce Emirates as the official airline partner for the GWI Triennial Conference, Cape Town, South Africa, 24-26 August 2016. Emirates has excellent connections to 150 destinations worldwide across six continents with one convenient stop in Dubai. Emirates is offering a discount to GWI Conference delegates who have confirmed and paid their registration fee, with 10% off on the prevailing lowest online fare on Business Class and on Economy Class return fares. The promotion code to be used will be given upon receipt of Conference registration fee payment.

GWI's 32nd triennial conference in Cape Town is centred on education, gender and human rights. Deeply intertwined, these three areas affect girls' and women's lives around the globe. The Conference aims to provide a diverse programme where stakeholders can contribute to leading discourse on the strands of complexity in education, new technologies in education, education and human rights and the effects of violence on access to education for girls and women.

GWI President, Catherine Bell states: "GWI is delighted to partner with Emirates as our official airline partner during this key global educational event. Together we can establish the GWI Conference, held in the wonderfully scenic setting of Cape Town, as an opportunity to network and build relationships, and to strengthen the movement in favour of girls' and women's education worldwide."

Graduate Women International (GWI) is a membership-based international NGO based in Geneva, Switzerland, with presence in over 80 countries. Founded in 1919, GWI is the leading girls' and women's global organisation advocating for women's rights, equality and empowerment through access to quality education and training up to the highest levels. GWI is in special consultative status with ECOSOC and is an NGO maintaining official relations with UNESCO and ILO.
