

Action plan:

1. lobbying governments; and
2. networking with other organizations engaged in the same cause.

8) RESOLUTION ON VIOLENCE AT SCHOOL
Proposed by the French Association of University Women

The 26th Conference resolves:

that NFAs urge their respective Ministries of National Education and other concerned Ministries to:

1. take effective action to combat violence at school and ensure the security of all those at risk, with particular concern for the safety of young girls and teenagers; and
2. develop awareness of the need to combat violence and to include education for peace in the programmes of all concerned Ministries.

Supporting statement:

Violence in the school environment is dangerously on the increase, ranging from racketeering to sexual aggression and drug addiction. Girls, as young children and as teenagers, are the most exposed to such dangers and are in particular the victims.

Action plan (at different levels):

1. in educational establishments - pinpointing forms of violence and detecting those responsible; making a study of effective penalties;
2. in the community - mobilizing parents' associations, other associations and services; and
3. at the national level - lobbying the appropriate services of the Ministry of National Education and services concerning minors in the Ministry of Justice.

9) RESOLUTION ON ABUSE OF WOMEN'S HUMAN RIGHTS
Proposed by the British Federation of Women Graduates

The 26th Conference resolves:

- that the IFUW Board of Officers write to the UN Secretary General, the High Commissioner on Human Rights, the director General of UNESCO, the Executive Directors of UNICEF and UNFPA commending the action they took in sending a Gender Mission to Afghanistan and urging immediate follow-up action to ensure that women and girls are no longer denied their human rights, particularly with respect to education and health;
- that NFAs should contact their own governments to express their concern and to enquire what action they have taken to condemn the denial of human rights to women and girls in Afghanistan and take
