International Women’s Day is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity.

The GWI Bangladesh has celebrated the day outside capital Dhaka in a scenic place 30 km away. We had discussions emphasizing on social security of girl and women.
President Shahzadi Begum said:

On this auspicious occasion, my humble tribute goes the great ladies like Clara Zetkin, Sylvia Pankhurst and other leaders who spearheaded the moments for the rights of women and gradually brought it to its present position.

We must ‘Break the bias’ for achieving “Gender Equality for a sustainable tomorrow”. We all know that the bias exists. Knowing about it is never enough. Action is required to level the playing field. We must keep Working till achievements are recognized by the world at large.

I, therefore, while congratulating would urge all the members of GWI to work hand in hand with political and social leaders, policy makers of the country so that the womenfolk of the world could see brighter days ahead of them.

May Allah bless you all.

Secretary general Nabia Bari emphasized on childhood education where boys and girls would be educated on moral education so that they would learn to respect each other and share all the thoughts equally there will be no disparity between girls and boys.

We enjoyed cultural program, food, fun and beauty of the greenery of calm and quiet village which rejuvenate our minds. Thanks to everyone for their presence and cooperation.

Happy Women’s Day to the President Terry Oudrad, Executive Director Stacy Dry Lara, all the members around the World. We will work together to reach our goal.
